Assessment

Primary

Assessments are a crucial component of academics, enabling stakeholders to gauge students' performance levels. They provide a clear picture of progress and inform subsequent steps. From 18th July to 25th July, we conducted our Unit 1 assessments. In preparation, teachers provided intensive revisions, ensuring students were well-prepared. The students exhibited great interest and performed admirably. Additionally, the smooth conduct of the assessment was significantly aided by the strong support from parents. Their involvement and cooperation played a vital role in the success of the assessments.

Middle School

Unit Test-1 for the session 2024-25 for Middle School commenced on the 18th of July, 2024 and concluded on the 26th July. The process went on smoothly. Our students put in their best efforts in this first assessment for this new academic year. The students, facilitators, and parents are eagerly looking forward to the results to know where the classes and individual students stand on their academic grounds and what plans of improvement or reinforcements the facilitators have to work on to take our students to the next level.

Secondary

The students from grade 9 to grade 12 of Geekay World School were assessed by the Periodic Assessment 1 & 2 which was held from 15th July, 2024 to 24th July, 2024. This helped to assess children's progress to plan ahead & to report on progress. The assessment ensured that their progress was on track and that necessary action was taken to support their learning. This assessment prepared learners for formal assessments and examinations that will take place in the senior phase.

Cambridge

"If a child is not able to understand the way we teach, then the teacher has to teach in a way that the child understands".

The Diagnostic/Formative assessment for Grade 6 to A levels began on 1st July and concluded on 8th July. The Parent-Teacher Meeting (PTM) for discussing the results took place on 13th July. During this meeting, all parents were informed about their child's performance and had the chance to meet the teachers. This also provided teachers with valuable insights into each child's comprehension level, allowing them to tailor their teaching strategies accordingly.

Parents benefited from this process by gaining a clearer understanding of their child's strengths and areas for improvement. They were able to engage in meaningful discussions with teachers about how to support their child's learning at home. Furthermore, parents were given resources and strategies to help reinforce concepts outside the classroom, fostering a stronger partnership between home and school.

The student council elections

Excited whispers reverberating through the corridors all around the school. Unending conversations and cacophony all over the place. Children sprinting across the hallway to collect their nomination forms, reading through them with ardent eyes. Commissions are just like real-life elections. The only difference is that they exchange money for a vote and here distribution of chocolates and candy is on full steam. The school itself looks like an art, pastels & blue inks. I will miss these as I grow up. Things like these give unforgettable memories throughout a lifetime. Whether victory comes in hand or defeat teaches me lessons I never stopped trying and that is why I've come a long way. All that ever mattered was the ultimate experience it showers one with. It is a whole lot of politics, but everywhere, all that wins is kindness. It is just a mere student council election at school, but it has taught me and hopefully many that in a world where you can be anything, be kind. And this is how I wish all the elections in this entire world must take place.
